Gridiron Club of Greater Boston Announces 16 Semi-Finalists for 58th Walter Brown Award

Outstanding field of American-born Division One hockey players in New England includes three repeat nominees

BOSTON – February 1, 2010 – Gridiron Club of Greater Boston president Steve Grogan announced today that sixteen NCAA Division One players are semi-finalists for the fifty-eighth Walter Brown Award, presented annually to the best American-born college hockey player in New England.

The candidates include eleven players from Hockey East, three from the ECAC Hockey League, and two from Atlantic Hockey. The slate comprises 11 forwards, one goalie, and four defensemen. Five teams – Yale, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Boston University, and Boston College – each have two nominees.

Massachusetts junior James Marcou, (Kings Park, NY); UMass-Lowell senior Kory Falite (Billerica, MA); and Yale senior Sean Backman (Cos Cob, CT), all forwards, were semifinalists for last year's award, which was won by Boston University's Matt Gilroy. Marcou, who currently leads the nation in scoring with 40 points in 28 games, was also in the running two years ago as a freshman.

The only goaltender on the 2010 semifinalists' list is Vermont sophomore Rob Madore (Pittsburgh, PA). Defensemen are Boston College senior Carl Sneep (Nisswa, MN); Boston University sophomore David Warsofsky (Marshfield, MA); New Hampshire sophomore Blake Kessel (Verona, WI); and Providence senior Mark Fayne (Sagamore Beach, MA.)

Additional ECAC Hockey League forwards are Yale junior Broc Little (Rindge, NH); and Quinnipiac senior Eric Lampe (Madison, WI.)

Semifinalists from Atlantic Hockey are Sacred Heart senior Nick Johnson (Windsor, CT) and Bentley University senior Marc Menzione (Darien, IL.).

“The balance and competitiveness we've seen throughout college hockey in the East this year has been superb, and that balance was especially evident during the process of nomination and evaluation for the Walter Brown Award,” remarked Gridiron Club Hockey Awards Committee chairman Tim Costello.

“Once again, not every player who received serious consideration was able to make the cut. We will be tracking all of these excellent semifinalists closely through the stretch run and playoffs.”

The Gridiron Club will announce the finalists and winner of the 58th Walter Brown Award in March, following league playoffs and before the start of NCAA Tournament play.

The Walter Brown Award

Commemorating the life and works of America's greatest sportsman, the Walter Brown Award is given annually to the outstanding American-born college hockey player in New England. The Walter Brown Award is the oldest nationally recognized honor accorded to individual players in the sport of American college hockey. Brown coached the United States to its first world hockey championship in 1933. The U.S. team, the Massachusetts Rangers, comprised players from Boston College, Boston University, Harvard, Yale, Dartmouth, Notre Dame, and Boston Commerce High School. The Americans defeated the Toronto National Sea Fleas, coached by Harold Ballard, 2-1 in overtime in the final game of the 1933 World Tournament at Prague, Czechoslovakia. It was also America's first win over a team from Canada and the first loss ever suffered by the Canadians in international play. The U.S. team members established the Walter Brown award at their 20th reunion in 1953. Criteria for the selection committee include leadership, character, sportsmanship, and ability as well as on-ice achievement. The Gridiron Club of Greater Boston has been the steward of the Walter Brown Award since 1977.
